MRS. JUDGE'S GENEROUS GIFT TO THE NEW CATHEDRAL.

The grand gift of three stained glass windows for the new Cathedral, made by Archbishop Riordan of San Francisco during his late visit, has been supplemented by an equally generous gift from Mrs. Judge.

When Bishop Scanlan was asked to reserve the two large windows in the transept for a friend who wished to have the honor and privilege of putting in two memorial windows, he could not conceal his joy. When told who the donor was he quietly remarked: "This is another very agreeable surprise. Mrs. Judge's name stands at the head of the subscription list. It was an encouragement to me and the good example has been followed by others. I have no doubt but the same example will be in turn followed, too."

We congratulate the bishop and extend to Mrs. Judge the good wishes of the Catholics of the diocese.

Stephen Hayes, son of Stephen Hayes of Birmingham, left on Thursday for Notre Dame University to renew his studies.

P. J. Daly and family have gone to New York. They will not return to Salt Lake. Mr. Daly having given up his law practice here.

Work on the east tower of the new cathedral, which had been suspended for a week, will be resumed next week and completed within ten days.

John J. Daly and family have returned from their trip abroad. While in Europe they visited the Paris Exposition and many interesting points on the continent.

Mrs. Judge leaves for New York this (Friday) evening to meet her son, Frank, who returns from a trip abroad. He is now on the ocean and will reach New York about Sept. 5.

The announcement is made of the resignation of Professor Joseph J. Raynes as organist of the Tabernacle choir and the appointment of John J. McCallan as his successor.

Friends of Judge Thomas Maloney of Ogden are urging his claims for the judgeship nomination which has been declined by Judge Hiles. Judge Maloney was a candidate for supreme judge in 1888, when all the Democratic candidates were defeated, and his friends now say that he should be given another chance when the conditions are more favorable.

Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and Sister Superior of St. Ann's visited the new Kearns Orphanage on Tuesday afternoon. They were visiting of the building. They were met and had a conference with Father Kiehl, Architect Neuhausen and W. P. O'Meara and arrangements were completed for the furnishing of the institution.

Mrs. M. A. Jenkins journeyed nearly 2,000 miles from her home in Missouri to meet and marry her affianced, John E. Bowen of Butte, Mont. The marriage took place at Salt Lake on Aug. 23, and the happy couple are enjoying a honeymoon here. That they may live long to enjoy their married life is the wish of many friends.

Mr. Daynes will carry with him the enviable record of presiding over one of the greatest churches in America ever built, and in the long term of over thirty years entertaining some of the most noted and talented people of the world. The Intermountain Catholic wishes him the same success in business, which now demands all his attention, that he has acquired as organist of the great Tabernacle.

Salt Lake is to have another newspaper. This is the Utah Statesman, which will be devoted to Scandinavian news and literature.

There was a meeting last evening of the Scandinavian Publishing company at which this was decided by nearly all those attending. The company was organized by S. E. Fernstrom, John Halverson, L. Dahlquist, Thomas E. Viking, L. P. Madsen, C. L. Nelson and H. C. Thorsen, directors, and Gustav H. Backman, secretary and treasurer.

The first issue of the Statesman will be issued in a few days, and after that it will be issued regularly each week. The gentlemen who have gone into the enterprise are convinced of the need of such a paper, and they will push it to certain success. The company will also publish a number of various kinds, all of course, in the Scandinavian language.

Dense clouds of smoke were discovered issuing from the hills in the vicinity of Bingham late Wednesday afternoon and as evening approached it looked more and more as though some of the mine works and possibly the town itself were either burning or in imminent danger of being consumed. That it was a forest fire seemed evident but just where it was located was sized up differently by nearly all those whose attention had been drawn to it. Some had it located in Carr Fork canyon, while others were quite sure it was in Keystone gulch. One report had it that the United States company's property was involved, while another story set out after dark that the Dalton & Lark and other works in that vicinity were doomed.

Men interested in the camp, were considerably worked up until the fire became known and many of them breathed a great deal easier when they learned that no real danger was threatened.

Investigation showed that the fire was burning in Pine canyon two or three miles west of the Highland Park and that great tracts of timber with which the canyon is filled was being destroyed.

At Bingham last night it was thought that the only mine in danger was the Star, which is equipped with a small combination mill, and while no definite report had been brought over the impression prevailed that the fire was too far down toward Tropic to reach that property.

Pine canyon is a great hunting ground and Binghamites had no doubt but what the fire was started, intentionally or otherwise, by campers. No concern was felt for the properties lying between Bingham and the canyon as no timber to speak of grows on that side of the canyon or the hills above, but it is thought the loss in the timber preserves on the south side of Pine canyon will be quite heavy.

Ogden, Aug. 30.—Willard Wright of this city met death in Ogden canyon yesterday evening while driving down from Huntsville. Wright was in a hurry with his father-in-law, Mr. Braden, and the rig tipped over the bank while coming down a hill just this side of Wilson's sawmill.

Mr. Braden, being next to the embankment, jumped out and was unhurt. Mr. Wright fell about twenty feet and struck his head on a projecting rock or on some portion of the buggy and was stunned. Being helpless, he was caught in the current of the river and drowned. The body was washed some distance down stream and across the river.

Wright was at once sent to Ogden and Sheriff Layne, together with a number of citizens, went up and recovered the body. It was brought down this morning by Undertaker Richey.

Mr. Wright was a son of Professor Wright, one of the oldest and best-known teachers in Weber county.

Blackfoot, Ida., Aug. 23.—Charles A. Towne and wife will reach Blackfoot Friday. Mrs. Towne will be the guest of Mrs. Dubois during the campaign of Mr. Towne and Senator Dubois. Blackfoot society is determined to make Mrs. Towne's visit to the little city as agreeable as possible.

The Towne series of meetings embraces nine speeches in nine counties, beginning at Pocatello, Sept. 1. The issue in Idaho is the free and unlimited removal of silver at 16 to 1 and Mr. Towne has no superior for silver or ability in discussing this question. The gold standard Republicans will have an opportunity to defend their platform, the silver standard of gold, their currency bill, the retirement of the greenbacks and kindred subjects, growing out of their position on money legislation. Idaho is a silver state and the reform forces in it are quite willing to accept the issue of battle instigated by the national Republicans, that bimetallicism is the great issue.

Mr. Towne's coming is looked forward to with great interest and enthusiasm. Social justice will be the subject of his address and the campaign will be formally opened with his speeches.

The candidates of the fusion ticket and the state chairman of Democrats, Populists and Progressives will accompany Mr. Towne on most of his trips. All are confident of a decisive victory for the silver forces in Idaho and that, according to the vote, it will be the banner Bryan state this fall.

The appearance of Mr. Towne is regarded as a personal compliment to Senator Dubois, as his time is much in demand in the great west.

BRYAN TO LEAD DEMOCRATS. Chicago, Aug. 25.—W. J. Bryan will lead the fight of the Democrats himself in the central and eastern states. He will take command next week in Chicago, and then will begin an invasion of Republican territory, for he has decided to stump Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey and West Virginia.

This change of plan was announced today by Senator J. K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, and Mr. Bryan's itinerary is now being worked out by J. G. McCann, chairman of the speakers' bureau. Mr. Bryan will leave Lincoln Friday night. On Saturday he will speak at some points in Illinois on his way to Chicago. He will reach Chicago Monday, and on that day will make his Labor day speech here. He will then go to Milwaukee for the big Democratic picnic special. He will be at Fort Wayne Sept. 13, and the next day will be heard at Columbus, O. These are all the dates that have been definitely decided upon, but it is settled that Mr. Bryan will go to St. Louis next week before going to Milwaukee. His trip to West Virginia comes early on the program. From West Virginia he is expected to be swinging around the circuit into Maryland, New Jersey and New York, and then he will turn westward on more and more devoted some time to Ohio and other middle western states.

Charles A. Towne left Chicago tonight for a speaking trip that will carry him into all parts of the country. Mr. Towne will make his first speech on Friday at some point in Idaho. Then he will go into Washington, Oregon, California and Arizona where he will spend three or four days. Starting from Kansas he will make speeches in Nebraska and put in an entire week in South Dakota. He will be back to Illinois Oct. 1, and after making a number of speeches in this state he will go back to Chicago, Indiana and Illinois, reserving the last week for Minnesota.

Tiny Remnant of the Flag of Illinois

"Irish Legion."

For the purpose of receiving a tiny bit of faded green silk, a remnant of a flag that had led thousands to victory, Major Daniel O'Connor traveled from Chicago and arrived in New York Saturday.

This bit of silk, barely two inches square, is all that is left of the flag of the Nineteenth Illinois Volunteer Infantry—the Irish Legion. It was a tiny remnant of the flag, and it was shot to pieces before the war ended, and all but a small piece was saved.

It had been in the possession of Colonel T. E. Loneragan, who has an office in the Bennett building, since the surrender at Appomattox, and when the few surviving veterans of the Irish Legion were informed that the Colonel Loneragan possessed the remnant they petitioned him to present it to their club.

Colonel Loneragan replied that he would be glad to let them have half of the piece he possessed. On receipt of this communication the surviving veterans of the legion, Major O'Connor, to receive the trophy.

On his arrival Major O'Connor went directly to Colonel Loneragan's office, where in the presence of half a dozen war veterans he was handed the tiny bit of faded green silk.

Major O'Connor, who is a man of commanding presence, is the brother of Major General O'Connor of the British army—better known in some of Charles Dickens' letters as the private with "an irresistible will." General O'Connor, V. C., C. B., rose from the ranks during the Crimean war, receiving all the medals and honors for exceptional bravery and the thanks of the war office for saving the first battalion of the Buffs from annihilation at Sebastopol.

A GOOD SERVANT.

To make money is difficult; to keep it is more difficult; to make it earn more money safely is a science. Can money be profitably invested, so that the principal is safe? Certainly, and by the process which increases the principal faster than any other means, viz: Interest. It is an old saying that "Six per cent will buy the world." The wealthiest men and institutions in the world have made their money by interest. Occasionally a man makes a fortune. Occasionally a man makes a fortune very rare, while anyone can become wealthy by interest. Interest is an ideal servant. It works all day and all night, Sundays and holidays, twenty-four hours a day, through hail, rain and shine; never goes on a strike; does not smoke, drink or chew; is always ready and willing to work for anyone who wants him. All he asks is that his employer shall put $100 or more into the business. The more that is put in, the harder the servant will work. The capital will all be returned with a hundredfold increase in due time, and meanwhile there is no worry or bother; it is a source of constant comfort.

The favorite field for interest to work in is real estate mortgages in a steadily growing community. They should be first mortgages, on improved property, with insurance payable to the holder of the mortgage in case of fire. The rate should not be too high, but just high enough to get the very best security.

ROGERS GAINS VICTORY. Seattle, Wash., Aug. 30.—At an early hour this morning John R. Rogers was re-nominated for the office of governor by the fusionists in union convention.

The eighth ballot which landed him the nomination stood: Rogers, 704; Fawcett, 241; Voorhees, 11; Neil Cheatham, 43; Thurston Daniels, 53. There is no doubt that to those who were not in attendance upon the convention that Mr. Rogers' nomination will come as a great surprise.

Upon the organization of the three conventions here on Monday, the Democrats and Populists were by sized majorities opposed to the governor's nomination. Rogers, however, had a splendid organization which did not lose courage and held all of its delegates.

Last night they succeeded in winning over Stevens county and this, together with several other small changes in their favor gave them control of the union convention which met today.

The governor's stock went up considerably when on a test vote of his strength F. C. Robertson of Sookan was shown to be the convention's favorite for congressman. Governor Rogers and his crowd forced the nomination of Vooghees, Ronald's candidate for governor. Ronald personally offered to go down to defeat but his delegation insisted that he accept the nomination even though it aided Rogers by disposing of Vooghees.

The convention adjourned this morning after nominating Rogers. It will convene at 9 o'clock.
